TO BEGIN DRUG ABUSE STUDY IN SCHOOLS

BY TROY MARTIN

Canyon School System is in the process of formulating programs on drug abuse, School Supt. Jerry Jacobs told the Canyon school board at a regular meeting Tuesday night.

Jacobs said a program on drugs will be started in high school the first week of the second semester and that instructions already are under way in the elementary schools.

He revealed that a half dozen teachers spent four days in a workshop on drugs in Amarillo recently.

Jacobs said he feels that a crash program, such as having a speaker or even a series of speakers, would be ineffective.

He told the board an effective, systematic instructional program has been undertaken on the fifth grade level dealing with drugs, alcohol and smoking.

"We are in the process of developing a curriculum to teach the bad points of drugs, alcohol and nicotine," he declared. He said the school also is developing a program on law and law enforcement.

"This problem (drugs) is with us and don't think it's not," declared Dr. Dudley Moore, school board president. "I've seen two boys who used LSD. They're gone. Their minds will never be back."

The school board president also noted that drugs are available to students in Canyon.

The board voted to proceed on collection of delinquent school taxes. This will include filing suits for collection when necessary, Jacobs said.

The board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Gay Dale, English instructor, and hired Mrs. D'Ann Mutos to replace her.

Members of the board discussed the possibility of closing Umbarger School at mid-term. Jacobs said the school is down to 34 students and may drop as low as 31 after semester.

He said he thinks it would be economically wise to close the school but would be bad for the students who would be scattered through Rex Reeves Elementary School in Canyon.

The board voted to leave the school at Umbarger unchanged through next semester and will meet with Ed Wieck and Raymond Batenhorst, former members of Umbarger school board, to discuss the matter.

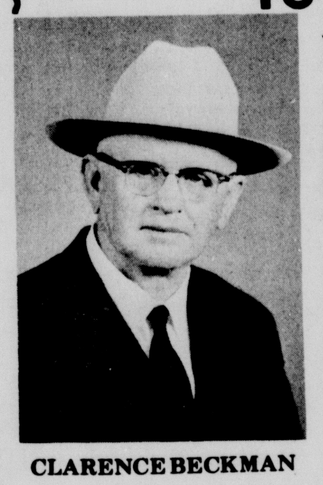

The board agreed to a joint paving project with the city in the vicinity of the new junior high school. The project is expected to cost the school about $800.

Jacobs told the board he thinks the people building Canyon Junior High School building are "dragging their feet" but placed the blame on sub-contractors rather than the prime contractor, John Moss of Amarillo.

The building was sche-

Clarence Beckman To Be Honored

CLARENCE BECKMAN

Monday, Dec. 28 has been named Clarence Beckman Day in Randall County, honoring the man who has given 34 years' service as a Randall County commissioner.

County Judge Carrol Brown named the day for Beckman Monday at Commissioners Court. The 67-year-old commissioner will formally step down Jan. 1.

Beckman first was elected to the Randall County Commission in 1936 and found the county's biggest problem at the time was "it didn't have any money or equipment."

"Oh, we borrowed some money and did the best we could," he said. "A couple of years later we re-financed. Times got better and people began catching up on their back taxes. I expect it was 10 or 12 years before we got on a cash basis again."

Counties coming out of the hard depression years could not be expected to have a great deal of equipment, but Randall County's supply was really sparse.

"When I started up we didn't have anything but two hard-tired maintainers in the entire county," Beckman said. "About my second term we bought a rubber-tired grader and a Chalmers tractor, on time of course."

When you by one or two major articles at a time you can stretch them out, and fortunately "Randall County's credit was always good."

Beckman said the World War II conflict did not have much effect on county business.

"The war did not make a big difference within the county," he said. "We bought some bonds and tried to rock along. It was easier to get help than it is now. People all worked in those days, and we could hire some of the younger farmers on a part-time basis."

The population of the county grew after the war and eventually the young men back from Europe and the Pacific were assimilated into the agricultural region.

"It is hard for me sometimes to look back and pin a date to some important happening in the county," Beckman said. "Of course the Expressway to Amarillo and the construction of Buffalo Lake were both major happenings in the county."

Randall County may have retraced its steps a few times, but the 34-year veteran said that it normally got where it was going.

"I don't think we've ever had a good project that failed," he said. "Sometimes it might take a year or two extra, but they normally got realized. You never seem to catch up."

Beckman said he was all

Two Surrender

A Canyon man and his wife charged in connection with theft of some 400,000 pounds of grain sorghum from Randall County Feedyard surrendered to Sheriff L.S. "Slim" Johnston here Tuesday after returning from a trip to Las Vegas.

Frankie and Connie O'Donald were arraigned Tuesday afternoon before Justice of the Peace W.A. "Bill" Wilson.

O'Donald's bond was set at $5,000 and his wife's bond at $2,000. Both were released from custody Tuesday afternoon after posting bond.

The O'Donalds are parents of three small children. They said they left the children with relatives while making the trip to Las Vegas.

They returned to Canyon by way of El Paso and conferred with their attorney, Rhett Plank, then surrendered to the sheriff.

O'Donald is 26 years old and his wife is 24.

Hubert Wiley was arrested in connection with grain thefts from Randall County Feedyard last Thursday afternoon. Wiley, 39, gave his address as 2612 Twelfth Avenue.

He was released from custody after posting $5,000 bond.

The O'Donalds specifically are charged with theft of grain sorghum from Bruce Lusk the night of Dec. 1. Lusk is manager of the feed yard.

Wiley specifically is charged with theft of grain sorghum the night of Oct. 3.

Authorities placed the value of grain taken from the feedyard at about $8,000.

Johnston said the arrests came as a result of a year and a half of investigation.

Lusk said thefts from his firm had been occurring for some time but at first had been on a very small scale.

"When it started it was just a matter of a few barrels in the back of a pickup," Lusk reported. "It finally reached a point where a truck and trailer was rented and 75,000 pounds hauled out at once."

Wiley was night mill foreman at the feedyard and O'Donald was a night employee.

Coyotes Prey On Calves

Predatory coyotes are preying on calves "more than ever" this year, according to area ranchers and stockmen.

W.A. Warren said Warren Hereford Ranch has lost five or six to coyotes in recent weeks. The coyotes usually prey on newborn calves but one killed on the Warren ranch was two weeks old.

"We're having more of it this year than we've ever had," Warren reported. He says he is at loss to know why because rabbits, normal food of coyotes, are in plentiful supply this year.

County Agent John Brazzil said poison bait is being put out in some rough and remote areas of Armstrong County in an effort to control the predators.

Cousins Hurt In Umbarger Mishap

Three cousins were hurt, one seriously, in a two-car collision on Church Road a mile west of Umbarger about 11 o'clock Sunday night.

Seriously injured is David Dennis Brant, 19 years old, Rt. 1, Canyon.

Released from Neblett Hospital in Canyon at midweek was Gerald Joseph Batenhorst, 19, also of Rt. 1, Canyon.

Lloyd Vorwald, 18, Salida, Colo., was treated for minor injuries and dismissed.

Brant, a sailor in the US Navy, was home on leave at the time of the accident. He was treated at Canyon and then taken to the Veterans Administration Hospital in Amarillo.

Attendants there at midweek said his condition was improving but described it as still serious. They said he had suffered a fracture of the pelvis, extensive cuts and bruises and internal injuries.

"His internal injuries were not as serious as we first thought," a spokesman for the Veterans Hospital said Tuesday.

Highway Patrolman Ron Boyter, who investigated the accident, said the three youths are cousins.

A car driven by Brant was traveling west and a car driven by Batenhorst was traveling east, Boyter reported.

Boyter said the two vehicles were accelerating as they met each other. He reported that the two cars met each other left fender to left fender.

They struck each other a glancing blow and ricocheted apart. The Batenhorst car came to rest in a field 204 feet from impact.

The Brant car skidded 17 feet from impact and wound up facing south, half off the roadway. Boyter said Vorwald was in the car with Batenhorst.

Planner At City Meet Tonight

Marvin Springer, city planner from Dallas, will outline his preliminary comprehensive plan for Canuon at 7 o'clock tonight in the Community Center.

He will speak before a joint session of the city commission and the Planning and Zoning Board.

The plan will present proposals on annexation and the social and economic

That finishing touch on the Christmas tree is accented by beauty, Sharon Frisbie. The 20-year-old junior is an elementary education major from Plainview. She has served as freshman and sophomore senator and is a varsity cheerleader. Sharon is social chairman of Chi Omega and a Lambda Chi Alpha Crescent.

Drouth Costing Area Thousands

Drouth is costing the Randall County economy hundreds of thousands of dollars this year, according to County Agent John Brazzil.

Wheat which normally is lush for grazing at this time of year is barely hanging on to life.

"There is no moisture on top and no subsoil moisture so the young wheat is barely alive," Brazzil reported.

He said the wheat came up in October but hasn't progressed much beyond that.

The county agent noted that at this time last year there were some 60,000 head of stocker cattle on wheat pasture in the county.

"There are some on irrigated pasture and a few on stalk fields," said Brazzil, "But I'd say there are far less than half as many as there were last year."

"As for the wheat, the best we can hope for is that it doesn't die," he went on. "Until we get some spring rains next year, providing we get spring rains."

Brazzil said the lack of wheat pasture has been a blow to the agricultural economy this year. "It has been a big money crop for us," he declared, "and this year we don't have it."

Brazzil quotes some pioneers as saying this is the driest year in their memory. Some areas of the county have had less than five inches of moisture since the first of the year, Brazzil reported.

Normal rainfall for the Canyon area is 19.5 inches. Brazzil said most of the county has received 9 to 10 inches.

"Even with normal moisture we're short," he declared. "When you cut that in half to less than 10 inches, it becomes critical."

R. Watson Trial In Progress

An Amarillo policeman and a police secretary Wednesday testified that Robert Watson came to police headquarters early the morning of Aug. 7 and in tears told of beating his wife to death.

Watson is on trial for murder with malice in connection with the death of his wife, Hazel Marie. Trial of the case opened in 181st District Court Wednesday.

Maxine Chandonnet, a clerk in the police department, said Watson came to the department about 3:45 o'clock saying he had killed his wife and needed to talk to someone.

"I can't sleep and I can't eat," she quoted him as having said.

The slaying is alleged to

Pant Suits Get Board Blessing

Pant suits are in at Canyon High School.

Ban on the attire which has swept the feminine apparel world was lifted Tuesday night by a unanimous vote of the school board.

"Pant suits are very acceptable and are becoming very stylish," School Superintendent Jerry Jacobs told the school board at its regular meeting.

Jacobs asked that the dress code of the school be changed to allow pant suits.

"We need to know this soon because Santa Claus is just around the corner," he went on.

"I am all for it," echoed Board Member Jerry LaGrone. "They are doing it in all the hospitals and business places and I move that it be approved."

Approval of pant suits came with adoption of a new dress code which varies in few respects from the code already in force.

The boys who have a yen for long hair and heavy sideburns got no relief at all.

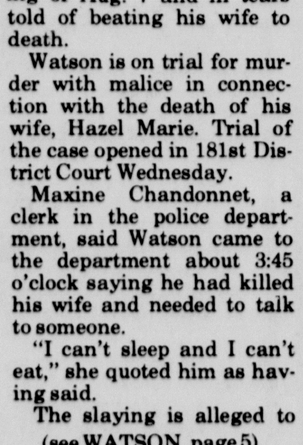

"Boys must be clean shaven, with sideburns straight and not longer than the bottom of the ear," the code stipulates. "Hair should be well groomed and trimmed so as not to extend over the eyebrow or ear." Ex-President Lyndon Johnson couldn't enroll at Canyon High School. The dress code says hair should not curl up in back due to excessive length, or extend over the collar of the shirt.

Hair rollers, hair clips or excessive make-up are out for the girls.

School officials contend there is a strong relationship between how a student is dressed and how he acts.

The dress code closes with a stern paragraph.

"Judgement regarding compliance with these guidelines will be made as necessary by the administration of this school. Failure to comply with this policy will result in corrective measures which, if necessary, include suspension from classes."

Nobody in the community trusted him. He allowed his mules to wear their manes long! Their reason was stupid but their judgement was correct.

Ambulance Gets Nod

Randall County commissioners court Monday placed LaGrone Funeral Home of Canyon and Metropolitan Ambulance Service of Amarillo on retainer fees of $200 a month to provide ambulance service in rural areas of the county.

Jerry LaGrone, owner of LaGrone Funeral Home, had asked for $250 a month.

LaGrone told the court that his ambulance service loses money and that he would be glad not to have it. He noted that a large percentage of the people he serves outside the city are transients.

"When we work all night and take care of them and then they get on to where they are going they seem to forget about us," LaGrone declared.

LaGrone previously had said that about 16 percent of all his ambulance calls are made outside the city.

The agreement between the county and the two ambulance companies is for them to provide ambulance service to the indigent in the county.

Randall County Criminal District Attorney George Dowlen told the court that it could not engage in ambulance service and that the only way it could enter into a contract for the service would be to stipulate that it be provided for indigents.

"We're kind of embarrassed," said Commissioner Clarence Beckman. "Just a few months ago we told the federal government we didn't have any indigents in the county."

The agreement beween the county and LaGrone and Metropolitan is for six months duration beginning Jan. 1. LaGrone has agreed to give a detailed accounting at the end of that period.

LaGrone already has a contractual arrangement with the city of Canyon under which the city pays him $562 a month to provide ambulance service to the city.

Commissioner Beckman was angered by a delinquent tax list submitted by Mrs. Audrey Bruse, tax assessor-collector.

"Some of the wealthiest people in the county are on it," Beckman declared. "When I look at this I don't see much use in paying taxes."

In other business the court voted to close the court house at 11 o'clock the morning of Dec. 24 for the court house Christmas party. The court house then will not be open again until the following Monday.

The court purchased two filing cabinets from Russell's of Amarillo at $408 and $229 respectively and a third from Southwest Stationery for $177. All three are for the county tax office.

Commissioners revealed that A.W. Lair and Dale Williams have rejected a title to a lot they purchased from the county some four years ago.

The court authorized advertising a sheriff's sale on the lot. The lot now will be sold to the highest bidder.

County Clerk LeRoy Hutton said the lot had been seized in the 1920s for delinquent taxes and had been county property since.

Judge Carroll Brown proclaimed Dec. 28 Clarence Beckman Day in Randall County. Judge Brown cited Beckman for "the faithful and very efficient service to the county over the past approximately 40 years."

FROM THE CANYON RIM

From the time I was a little boy, J. Edgar Hoover has been my idol.

I used to save Post Toastie box tops and I got about every junior G-Man badge that cereal company had to offer as a come on to small fry.

I have known for 20 years that some of the eccentricities attributed to J. Edgar Hoover have been true.

As a police reporter in Amarillo many years ago I was well aware of the fact that Hoover liked to break stories involving the FBI out of his office in Washington. He liked to make the FBI look good.

I can understand it because he had to run his department on money appropriated by Congress. He had to sell his department.

I must admit that I was shocked by a statement attributed to the FBI chief in which he is supposed to have said you don't have to worry about Puerto Ricans or Mexicans shooting the President because they can't shoot very straight but if they have a knife, beware.

I am sorry if a man I regard so highly made this statement because I also have a high regard for Mexican-Americans. As a group their loyalty is undoubted.

The courage of some individual Mexican-Americans spangle the history of our common country, especially that of the Lone Star State.

"As every student of Texas history knows, Mexicans who wanted to see an independent Texas died alongside Crockett and Travis in the Alamo.

If Mr. Hoover didn't make the statement, I wish he would deny it. If he did, I wish he would apologize for it.

Even if he made the statement and does not apologize, I hope Mexican-Americans and Puerto Ricans can forgive this great American who might have erred.

I agree with Bob Price.

I cannot understand what President Nixon had to gain by picking John Connally as his secretary of the treasury.

It hasn't been two months since Connally was traveling the state blasting the Nixon administration.

From a political standpoint, the appointment left Nixon chances of carrying the state in 1972 about nil. The very people who supported him here in 1968 are almost certain to be angered.

It is doubtful that it will bring him any extra Democratic votes in 1972.

But there is always the possibility that Nixon isn't looking to 1972 but may be looking to the good of the country. What happens to the country's fiscal policies and the ultimate results are apt to tell us whether or not the appointment was for political gain or for the good of the country.

Dr. Dudley Moore enjoys being school board president.

It gives him a chance for personal impact in a field he loves best—things dealing with youth. Dr. Moore takes the bull by the horns. He kicks things out in the open.

He has kids at every school board meeting. They wouldn't come to board meetings for just anyone. They come for Dr. Moore because they like him.

There's no generation gap. He speaks their language.

Many seniors in high school he worked with when they were playing little league baseball.

I think his rapport with the younger generation was well illustrated Tuesday night after a school board meeting when James Boyce, a hulking Eagle football player, walked up to him in the Canyon High School gym.

"Doc, my teeth hurt and my gums are sore," Boyce confided to Dr. Moore.

"Open your mouth and let me see," Dr. Moore instructed. Boyce complied.

"Take some vitamin C and they'll be all right," the doctor ordered and sauntered on across the gym to copy down the names of the 1964 state champion Eagle basketball team for whom he is planning a party.

Mark Olson Honored At Texas A & M

Mark Olson, senior agricultural economics major at Texas A&M University, has recently been selected to Gamma Sigma Delta, national honor society of agriculture.

The society recognizes only the top 15% of students in the United States in this field.

Olson, who was recently named to Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities, is currently serving his second term as President of the Civilian Student Body and Student Council at Texas A&M.

He has also served on the personal advisory staffs of university presidents Rudder, Luedecke, and recently named Jack Williams. In addition to this position he currently serves on eight university committees, four other advisory boards, and just completed heading the construction of the world's largest bonfire.

Olson is currently on scholarship by the Texas Banker's Association, and is recognized by the college of agriculture within the Texas A&M system as a distinguished student.

Olson has also been involved this year in selection of Aggie Sweetheart, Civilian Sweetheart, and has been in attendance at two state conferences, the national conference for student governments, and was selected to attend the national leadership training school.

He has maintained a 3.24 grade point average on the Texas A&M 4.00 scale.

Our World

BY ANN BROWN

Our government — Democratic or Republican— seems determined to equalize us and arrange economic security for all. (This is, of course, the avowed Communist goal.) But the people planners seem to have overlooked the fact that the basic human need is identity — the exact opposite of the anonymity they are trying to force upon us.

What made America the greatest, most productive, progressive nation under God? Security and equality? No! Daring, and rugged individualism.

The politicians promise to give us security, and to relieve all our anxieties. Naturally, they have to tax us out of all the security we would like to provide for ourselves to do it. And that creates a bit of anxiety in most of us.

Everyone who has ever "enjoyed" complete security knows it is boring. People hate being bored, and they prefer risk to security. Smart advertisers offer gimmicks that involve large prizes and small risks because people love to gamble. Sometimes the risk lies in adding one's name to mailing lists.

For life to contain any zest or beauty, one must stand out from the crowd in some area (even if it is nothing more than winning a prize or a bet).

The poor man of meager talents can be happy and fulfilled if his wife and children obviously appreciate him, and give him a hero's welcome at the end of the day. The man who is a big wheel with his family does not have to drive himself to an early grave in the competitive world. As long as one is a hero at home, he can survive all other defeats.

The most unprepossessing little housewife can glow with inner beauty and contentment if her husband and children cherish her and find her presence essential to their happiness.

Children whose parents and siblings enjoy their company, and laud their achievements, seldom need the approbation of a gang.

Men sit on flagpoles and climb the faces of seemingly inaccessible mountains to satisfy the burning need for recognition and status. The men who recently climbed the sheer face of the mountain in Yosemite National Park reported that they were surely the coldest, most miserable men on earth — but they were "alive." They obviously preferred the most dangerous kind of stimulation to boresome security.

Nondescript hippies justify their bestial existence in communes by contending they have finally found a place where they "belong," and where they "count" for something. They are saying they have found an identity — some recogniion.

Manson's "family" is obviously basking in the limelight that allegedly cost at least 7 Californians their lives, and is costing the survivors a $million. According to one member of the "family," they enjoyed chasing terrified citizens with butcher knives, and sinking the blades into their cowering bodies.

The dirty rabble riot on college campuses and in the streets in their search for identity and stimulation. (The TV and other news media add "frosting" to their cakes.) The various "causes" are merely scapegoats or means to their dubious ends.

If the Nixon Administration can foist off the guaranteed-income humbug on us, the number of "secure," useless, bored people in search of identity and stimulation will be increased by millions. And violence and lawlessness will increase in direct proportion.

Can we afford to provide the climate, time, and money for the development of more "Manson families"?

DA Drops Charges On Three Men

Three cases were dismissed Monday in 181st District Court on motions by Randall County Criminal District Attorney George Dowlen.

Dowlen said robbery charges against Monty Dale Lewis and Roger Young, both of Amarillo, were dismissed because the complaining witness failed to appear in court.

The two were charged with robbing LeRoy Sutton July 4.

Dowlen said burglary charges against Larry Davis McGowen, 23, Amarillo, were dismissed because a polygraph test run on McGowen "left serious doubt as to his guilt."

McGowen was charged with burglary of the VFW Hall here June 30.

duled to have been delivered to the school system complete by Jan. 1, 1971. Jacobs said that if the delivery date is not met payment on the building will be halted until it has been completed.

Members of the school board will tour the completed portion of the building at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Jacobs received permission from the board to pre-enroll boys in Reserve Officers Training Corps to determine the interest in such a program. Interest will be the deciding factor on whether to begin an ROTC program in the high school.

"We must know how many boys will enter ROTC and its effect on existing school programs," John Sommers, high school principal, told the board.

Jacobs said he received a directive from the state department of education which had received a directive from the office of Economic Opportunity requiring Canyon to adopt a policy on free lunches for underprivileged children. The school is required to send a notice on the new policy to parents by students.

OEO stipulated certain brackets of family income which would allow school children of the family to receive free school lunch or lunch at a reduced price.

Jacobs said the policy is similar to one adopted by the board two years ago. He told the board the school now is providing lunches free or at reduced prices to some 12 to 15 students.

He said it has been the school policy to require the students to do some work for their lunches.

"We have been informed that we cannot require students to work for lunches," he said. "But we will still encourage this to the point of almost insisting on it. Of course if we are challenged we will have to let them eat free."

Jacobs said he thinks it is very important to the training of a child that he be required to work for the lunch rather than getting it free.

The board voted to pay the medical expense of three women burned in an accident in Rex Reeves school kitchen last month.

A text book committee made up of 14 school administrators and teachers was appointed. The committee includes Mrs. Ocoee Holt, John Sommers, Mrs. Janelle Hicks, Mrs. Carolyn Byrd, Mrs. Georgia Guinn, Mrs. Jean Price, Mrs. Marion Shoemaker, Ronnie Gordon, Mrs. Cortez Dowlen, Mrs. Ruth Holladay, Marcus Phillips, Mrs. Flora Phillips, Herman Demus and Gayle Frederick.

Beckman. . .

in favor of having long range "wishbook" projects.

"I think it is good to have a project of the future all the time so you can budget for it," he said. "For the last 15 years I've never done any project in my precinct that I wasn't able to pay for when it was completed."

During his 34 years on the court, Beckman has served only two four-year terms, and after his second election "had an opponent for nearly every one of the two year terms."

"It's always been my attitude to see the people," he said. "As long as I've campaigned I've used the same system. Always just tried to see the people before the election. I still think it's the best but the county has gotten too thickly populated for that now."

Many men have come and gone on the court since Beckman's first term, but he retains high regards for all of them.

"All of my colleagues were good fellows," he said. "Randall County has been real fortunate in having good men in office, because the people of Randall County have always been interested."

Although fireworks in commissioner's court always makes interesting reading, things have been pretty tame in Randall County over the years.

"There were never really any serious squabbles in the court," Beckman said. "We always had some pretty good arguments up there but they settle them and when they walk out they're still friends."

Beckman said the weather was reasonably good to the county over the years, and the county tried to go along with a man who stumbled on hard times and fell a little short in his taxes.

"Everyone was in the same boat about taxes back then," he said. "The county always went along with someone who was having a hard time. We never foreclosed on a man who was trying to make it."

It all comes to an end Jan. 1, and Beckman said he would probably tend to his "little bunch of cows" and the same farm his folks worked before him.

"They've all been enjoyable years," he said. "I don't have any regrets. It just doesn't seem like 34 years."

Ambulance. .

Beckman and his wife will be honored at the Dec. 28 meeting of the court.

That meeting will be Beckman's last as a member of the court.

University ROTC To Sponsor High School Essay Contest

The West Texas State University R.O.T.C. department is sponsoring an essay contest for Panhandle high school students to promote interest in the activities of the United States Army.

Capt. John Osborne, officer in charge of the contest, said it would be open to any Panhandle high school student who would "prepare and present papers relative to wars, battles and campaigns conducted by the United States Army."

"We are trying to foster some interest in the study of military history, primarily in the Panhandle," Capt. Osborne said. "At the same time, we feel an essay of this sort could well affect a student's attitude when he arrives at college."

First place winner in the essay contest will receive a $50 Savings Bond, with second and third place winners each receiving a $25 Savings Bond.

The essays will be reviewed by a committee composed of members of the Department of Military Science and the History Department at WTSU. Dr. Duane Guy, chairman of the History Department, will coordinate historical evaluations of the essays.

Capt. Osborne said they will be judged primarily on "the basis of originality of the topic, degree of research by the writer, interest to the reader and scholarly approach to the subject."

"Entrants and their sponsors will be invited to the WTSU campus for a conference and other activities at which time selected papers will be presented," Capt. Osborne said. "The committee will then meet and decide on the winners."

Deadline for entry in the contest is March 1, 1971, with winners to be announced March 25.

"There is a wealth of rich military history and tradition right here in the Panhandle," he said. "For instance, during the 1870s some of the most famous Indian campaigns were conducted in the Eastern and Northern halves of the Panhandle."

Capt. Osborne also noted a little-known fact that the first mechanized attack to occur in the U.S. Army was at the Battle of McClellan Creek, fought near Pampa.

"The National Guard units in Canyon during World War I and II had distinguished records and should be the source of varied and interesting material," he said.

The captain also cited the WTSU library, which is a government depository, as an ideal place for a high school student interested in the contest to find material.

"I know they have every copy of the "Cavalry Journal," which was published from 1888 to 1966," he said. "You will find articles in early issues from such officers as Capt. Dwight D. Eisenhower and 1st Lt. George Patten."

Further information concerning the contest may be obtained from the professor of military science, West Texas State University, Canyon, Texas 79015, AC 806-656-3956.

climate of the city as well as projections on growth and the relation of the city government to the community.

The comprehensive plan has been in the mill for the past 4 years.

Springer said last Friday that there had been a two-year delay because of the I-27 by-pass question. The preliminary plan is being presented although the location of the proposed by-pass has not definitely been decided.

"We had to make some decisions," Springer declared.

The plan will deal with the economic base and growth of the community, population projection and land use.

There will be proposals on public buildings, public parks and their location in relation to schools.

Springer said proposals will be made concerning the downtown area and on housing in the city.

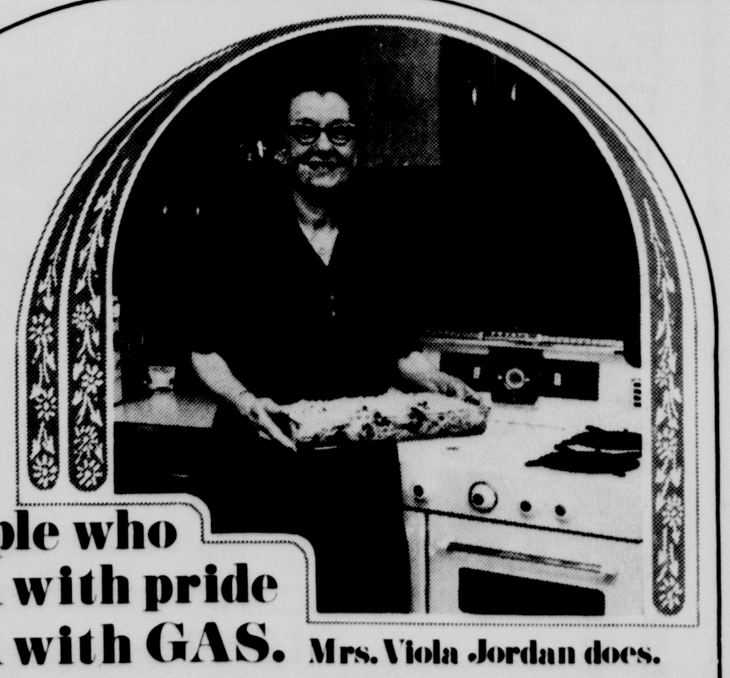

Commissioners tonight also will consider a request by American Hospital and Life Company of San Antonio that 25 acres due east of the Ponderosa Addition be annexed to the city.

Some of the world's best cooks are found in the kitchens of America, and they give themselves every cooking advantage, like gas range cooking. Good cooks like Mrs. Jordan and nine out of 10 professional cooks agree that precise temperature control makes the difference in good cooking, and with gas you get exactly that. Gas also gives immediate response and constant temperature, so important in oven cooking.

So, give yourself every advantage and cook with gas. Remember, people who cook with pride cook with gas.

Here's one of Mrs. Jordan's favorite recipes.

CHS Eagles Bow To Clovis 57-52

The Canyon Eagles lost a close one, 57-52, to Clovis Tuesday night in Canyon High School Gymnasium.

The Eagles lost the services of their scoring ace, Mike Podzemny, who fouled out early in the fourth quarter.

"Our field goal shooting was the worst it's ever been," lamented Coach B. B. Kendrick. The Eagles sank 20 field goals in 58 tries for 35 percent.

Clovis did little better sinking 22 out of 60 for 37 percent.

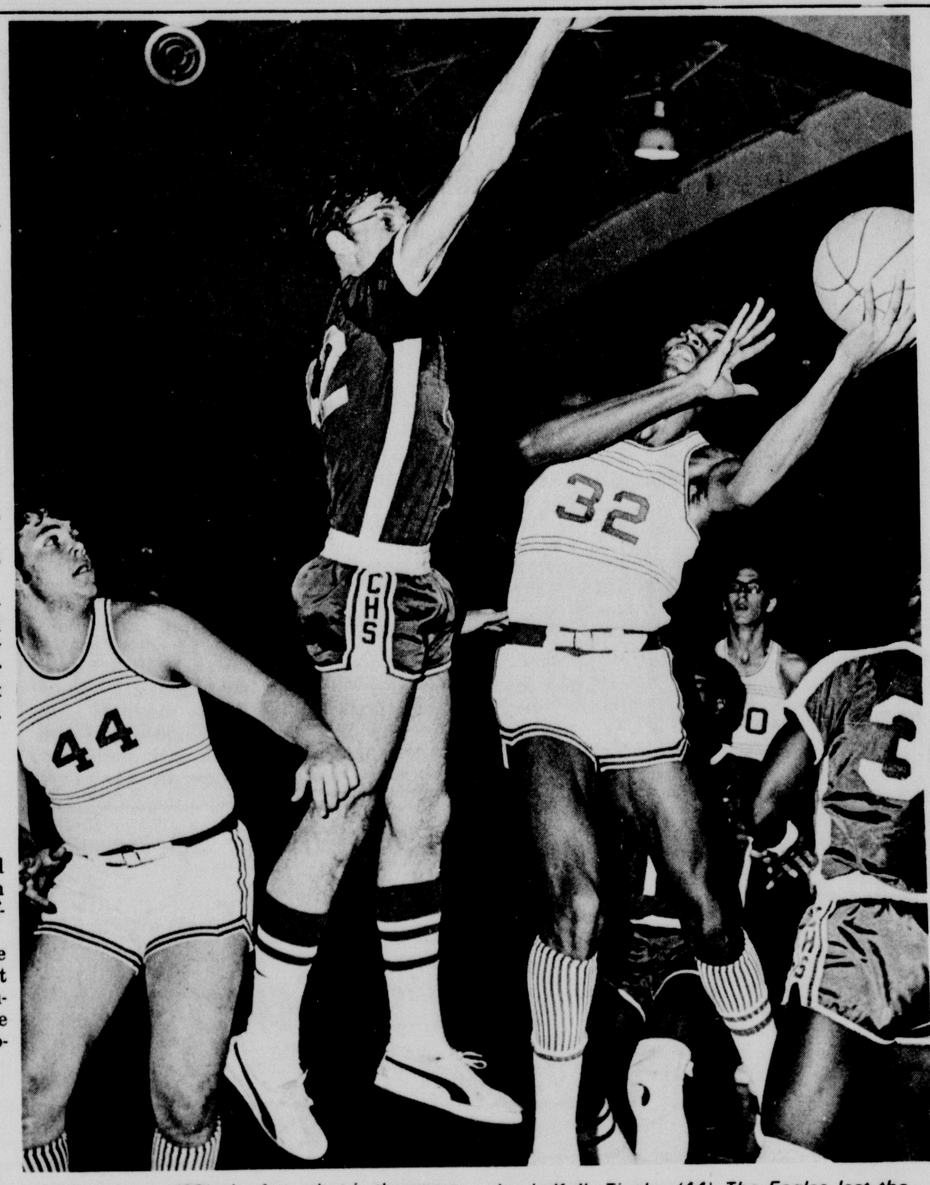

Canyon took a shellacking in the second and fourth quarters. The Eagles led 12-5 at the end of the first period but Clovis managed 18 points to Canyon's 7 to lead 23-19 at half time. The score was tied, 36-36, at the end of the third period.

Canyon hit 12 free throws out of 23 tries while they hit 13 out of 21. Canyon committed 17 fouls and Clovis 18.

The Eagles picked off 11 offensive rebounds and 28 on the defense. "We were beaten on the offensive board," Kendrick declared. The Eagles had 13 turnovers in the ball game.

Willie Johnson with 15 points led Canyon scoring. Dick Hunsaker with 28 points paced the visitors.

The Eagles take on a powerful Lubbock High School team at Lubbock Friday night. There will be a junior varsity game at 6 o'clock and the varsity will play at 8.

Willie Johnson (32) tries for a shot in the game with Clovis Tuesday night. Coming in on the play is Kelly Tinsley (44). The Eagles lost the game 57-52.

Girl Eagles Down Dalhart, Silverton

The Canyon girl Eagles swept two games this week defeating Dalhart 53-22 here Monday and then traveling to Silverton for a 67-44 win there.

Lynette Slack led Canyon scoring with 14 points against Dalhart while Leta Gill scored 12.

Leading scorer for Dalhart was Betsy Brooks who scored 18. Miss Brooks sank all of her final 13 attempts at the free throw line.

The Eagles sank 16 free throws in 26 tries for 63 percent and hit 22 field goals out of 56 tries.

The Eagles jumped ahead 14-3 in the first quarter and were never challenged.

Leta Gill was high with 23 points in the Silverton game. Lynette Slack had 19.

"I felt like we played better than we did at the Tulia tournament," commented Coach Bob Schneider. Gill, Slack and Ginger Currrie showed improvement on the offense, he said.

"Our offense moved the ball better than in the past two weeks but we are not shooting as well as I would like," the coach went on.

He said Cameron Davis and Joy Williams are doing a steady job on defense and are getting a lot of help from Sheila Payne and Julie Coffman.

The Eagles play in the Clarendon tournament Thursday, Friday and Satuday. Their first game will be with Wellington at noon today.

CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS

Watson. . .

have taken place Aug. 6.

She called in Patrolman Jimmy Miller who said Watson, after having been told of his rights, told him of events immediately before and after the death of Mrs. Watson.

Miller said Watson told him he came home drunk to his home in South Amarillo and found the house locked. He slit the screen and with a key unlocked the door but still was unable to get in.

Miller said Watson told of having kicked open the door to be met by his wife, whom he said was intoxicated, angry and brandishing a vase.

Miller quoted Watson as saying his wife cursed him, tried to hit him with the vase, and told him to get out.

Miller said Watson related that he threw her to the floor, kicked her and struck her head against the floor.

He put her head on a pillow and then went to sleep on a bed.

According to Miller, Watson said he awoke and found his wife had quit breathing. He reported that he tried mouth to mouth resuscitation and then became frightened.

The officer said Miller told of having loaded the body into his car, taking it southeast of Amarillo and dumping it into a pasture.

Miller said Watson led police to the vicinity of the body. Mrs. Watson's body was found about 5 o'clock the morning of Aug. 7 in a pasture just off South Osage .2 of a mile north of Hollywood Road.

The Watson home where Mrs. Watson is alleged to have been killed is at 4313 South Polk.

The trial was still in progress Wednesday afternoon before a jury of eight men and four women.

A Trip To The Sunny Coast Of Spain

An all-expense paid trip to Costa Del Sol, the sunny coast of Spain, is "thrilling" according to Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wirt, who recently returned from just such a trip.

The trip was won by the Wirts from the Carrier Air Conditioning Company. They flew to Dallas November 9 to join 299 other winners from a five state area, then onto Spain.

"Spain is a vast museum," Mrs. Wirt noted, "and the people there live it."

"We hardly slept," she continued, explaining that they had one week to see the country.

"Everything is big, there," she said.

"The highlight of the trip for me was seeing the Alhambra, the Royal Palace. It was built in the 13th Century."

"There we saw the throne room where Queen Isabella commissioned Columbus to discover the new route to India."

"In Spain they say that 'Spain discovered America and Washington Irving discovered the Alhambra'," she smiled.

Mrs. Wirt explained that it was the American writer who made the Spanish realize that the Alhambra was the Royal Palace of old through his writings. The palace is actually a series of three castles.

"At the Alhambra I wanted to touch everything that had been touched by great hands," she noted.

"We saw the King's bed, which was made of tile, and the Harem room with magnificent fountains. There were fountains everywhere."

"In the palace they relaxed on pillows on the floor and looked at the ceilings. . . the ceilings were magnificent."

"The palace even had a steam sauna bath. They would build fires under the floors to get the water hot. There were pipes for cold, hot, and perfumed water. The servants would pour the water into the pipes from the other side of the wall."

"We saw the tombs of Ferdinand and Isabella and their two children and toured the Generalife, their summer castle."

"The Generalife was only two miles away from the Alhambra, but at times wars prevented the royal party from going to the summer castle."

"Gold and silver is found throughout the castles, much of it was brought back from the Americas by Columbus and the later Spaniards."

"In the garden area natural water pressure has kept the fountains running ever since they were built," she pointed out.

Mrs. Wayne Wirt shows some of the treasures she and her husband brought back from their recent trip to Spain. The tall copper vase was found in a Spanish antique shop. The folder is from the Alhambra, the Royal Palace. Mrs. Wirt considers the palace tour the highlight of the trip.

"We also toured three cathedrals," Mrs. Wirt stated.

"The wealth of Spain is in its churches," she noted that the amount of gold, silver, diamonds and jewels in the churches is overwhelming.

Paintings by the old masters were hanging throughout the cathedrals and castles.

"We were impressed with a church organ with 1000 pipes,. . . until we saw one with 3000."

"We also toured the Ronda. It was built in 200 B.C. and was used for the Roman games. The first bull fight in the world was held there and it is still being used today. It was very impressive."

"The people in Spain are lovely, very refined, and most are in the middle class. They like Americans, tourists, and people in general."

A decorative Christmas tree from egg cartons is something new for Canyon. Mrs. D. M. Foster has been showing many of her friends how to make the clever tree. The tree is decorated with jewelry and tiny ornaments.

A Decorative Tree From Egg Cartons

Christmas trees come in various sizes, shapes, and materials. . . including egg cartons.

Mrs. D. M. Foster learned to make the cute decor egg carton Christmas tree from a friend in Tulia. She in turn has been showing her Canyon friends how to make the unique tree.

"You need four of the pastel foam egg cartons," Mrs. Foster noted.

"I use one color, either green, white, or pink," Mrs. Foster said.

"You start with a styrofoam base with a dowel rod in the center," she explained.

The egg cartons are split down the center and then glued together. Diamond shaped openings are left open in front for the lights to sparkle through.

Starting at the base of the tree, three of the egg shaped forms are put on to the rod. Next, a row of six carton segments are slipped down the rod, then five, then four, then three, two and finally one.

The carton segments are still joined across the back and simply glued together.

"I glue glitter to the front of the tree," Mrs. Foster pointed out. "Then add old jewelry, lights and whatever I have."

A little angel sits atop the decorative tree in the Foster living room.

"But, you can put anything up there," she noted.

The clever trees "don't take long to make, either," Mrs. Foster concluded.

E.O. Northcutt

LibraryDonated

Associate Justice Ernest O. Northcutt of the 7th Court of Civil Appeals in Amarillo has donated his law library to West Texas State University.

The library, containing about 1,000 volumes, was accepted for the university by David R. Matthis, associate professor of government, and Gene McGlasson, assistant professor of business. Both Matthis and McGlasson are advisors to pre-law students.

Stewart W. Dyess, assistant to the University librarian, said the donation, to be housed in the reference room of the library, would be a valuable supplement to materials now in use by pre-law majors.

Judge Northcutt, 79, who will retire Jan. 1 after serving on the bench since 1952, said he wanted a university to have his library. He chose West Texas State because he had served the Amarillo district for many years.

Judge Northcutt passed the bar examination during his freshman year at the University of Oklahoma. While still a freshman he was elected to the Oklahoma Legislature at the age of 25. He served a two-year term, but chose to continue his education rather than to seek re-election.

Judge Northcutt began his law practice in Amarillo on Sept. 1, 1919, shortly after receiving a law degree from the University of Oklahoma.

He practiced law in Amarillo for several years. In 1940 he was elected judge of the Potter County Court. He returned to private practice in the late 1940s and in 1951 was elected associate justice of the 7th Court of Civil Appeals.

A native of Springtown, near Fort Worth, Judge Northcutt is married and has three children.

ADPi Alumnae Have Xmas Party

The Canyon Alumnae Association of Alpha Delta Pi met Thursday in the home of Mrs. Ronald Taylor, 1409 Hillcrest for a Christmas party.

Two new members were recognized, Carolyn Blackburn and Dixie Conley. Betty Weaver and Mary Bess Brillhart have also joined the group.

Mrs. Elton Cox, president, presided over the meeting. Mrs. Clay Cooper gave the treasurer's report and Mrs. Willis Harrison reported on the November Tea.

Mrs. Harrison was recognized for her outstanding work as vice president in charge of membership and extension.

As a special Christmas remembrance to the WTSU Alpha Delta Pi chapter, alumnae members have been taking baked goodies to the chapter unit each day this week.

The group voted to help with a national Alpha Delta Pi project by sending a financial contribution.

The alumnae will host a salad supper in February for the WT chapter and pledges.

Present at the meeting were Mesdames Elton Cox, Larry Brandon, Ken Maynard, Ken Olsen, Rex Chitwood, Roy McGregor, Sylvia Pearcy, Gloria Taylor, Frank Blackburn, Clay Cooper, Gene Crowder, Willis Harrison, Claud Zevely, Dixie Conley, Jackie McAlpine, and Miss Alicia Abney.

The Christmas party served as a special baby shower for Mrs. Larry Brandon and Mrs. Gene Crowder. Mrs. Crowder's baby girl was born November 23 and Mrs. Brandon is expecting in February.

Tole Painting Classes To Begin

Tole painting, the art that makes beautiful decor objects from ordinary tin ones, will be taught by Mrs. Mary Jo Hales at her home starting in mid-January.

"Sometimes you just run into things to paint; sometimes you find something in your garage, or kitchen cabinets," the artist said.

"It's hard to find old pieces of tin, though, there are so many reproductions."

"Trays are both decorative and useful," she noted, "and tobacco tins make nice gifts."

Tole painters paint anything tin: coffee cans, food cans, kettles, milk cans, pie pans, juice cans, and anything else they can find.

"I can't see why anybody who enjoys painting wouldn't love tole painting. It gets in your blood," she continued.

The series of eight lessons, taught by Mrs. Hales, costs $20. The painters meet at the sun room of the Hales home and paint one morning a week from 9 a.m. until noon.

"We start with the brush stroke and first paint a design on a pencil can. We work from a pattern; later we paint fruit," she said.

"About 90 percent of all tole painting is done from patterns," she explained.

"Each object will carry about 7 coats of paint when it is completed," Mrs. Hales noted.

"First, you put on the base coat, then a color, and a coat of varnish. Then you add the decoration. Pencil it on from the pattern, then paint it in the various colors."

"After the decoration is on the tin another coat of varnish is added then allowed to dry. The piece may then be antiqued before the final coat of varnish is applied."

"It won't chip after the seven coats of paint and varnish." Mrs. Hales noted.

The Hales four bedroom ranch style home was designed by Mrs. Hales. She majored in government and minored in art, taking courses in interior decorating and crafts at the University of Colorado at Boulder. The home was featured in full color in the January 1970 Farm Journal.

Examples of her handiwork are found throughout her home. Beautiful oil paintings, china painting, and tole painting are among the wall and table decorations in each of the many rooms.

"I love to oil paint, but I just don't have time to do everything," she admitted.

Mrs. Hales is the adult leader of Cleta 4-H Club, a member of the University Study Club and has three children, Rick, CHS senior; Rhonda, CHS sophomore; and Rod, CJHS eighth grader.

She has studied under Louis Neugebauer of Vienna and Margo Cox and Phyllis Askew in Amarillo.

She started painting about 16 years ago and hasn't stopped since.

Social Pioneer Club Celebrates Christmas

The Social Pioneer Club and the Canyon Mother-in-Law Club met for a joint Christmas Party in the home of Mrs. Truman Williamson, 3513 Julian in Amarillo.

The party was given in honor of Mrs. Williamson's mother, Mrs. Callie Hawes. An array of refreshments including 2 cakes, party sandwiches, candies, coffee and punch were served.

The program was presented by Mrs. Francis Dolcator who played selections on the accordian. The group accompanied Mrs. Dolcator by singing Christmas Carols after the program. Mrs. Dolcator then played the piano.

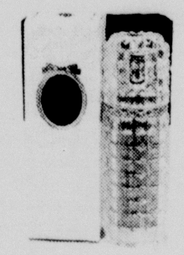

The Reverend Hill, chaplain at the Veteran's Hospital, read several poems and closed with a prayer.

Those attending were Mesdames T. T. Fain, C. W. Dunn, J. P. Hammonds, G. C. Gentry, Fred Marshall, John Hilgenfeld, Rae Walters, Lewis Harvey, J. N. Seay, W. T. Stewart, Gary Ford, and Mrs. Callie Hawes.

Guests at the party were Brother Hill, Madge Madlin and Mrs. Dolcator.

A gift exchange was held at the party.

Peggy Carol Wieser is among thirty-eight University of Texas students who are tentative candidates for bachelor's degrees from the University of Texas Nursing School at the end of the fall semester, December 23.

Cal State Of LA Visits Saturday

The West Texas State Buffaloes, seeking to correct their erratic offense, make their second home stand Saturday night against fast-shooting California State of Los Angeles in the Amarillo Coliseum.

The Buffaloes, even on the season with a 2-2 record but unbeaten at home, put together their best scoring game of the campaign last Saturday night in a 117-93 losing cause at Colorado State.

The 7:30 p.m. contest will be preceded by the West Texas freshmen meeting undefeated Amarillo College, with a seven-game winning streak, at 5:30.

California State, nicknamed the Diablos — Spanish for Devils — had a three-game victory string stopped last week by Long Beach State 81-73. Prior to that the Diablos beat Cal Poly (Pomona) 103-74, California-Irvine 78-66 and San Diego 96-81.

The Diablos, runnerup last year in the Pacific Coast Athletic Association, like to "run, jump and shoot," said West Texas Coach Dennis Walling.

"They are a very offensive minded bunch," he said. "They can score a bunch in a hurry."

Cal State averaged 87 points a game and shot at a 42 per cent pace from the field through its first four games. This compares with West Texas' 73 points a game and 35.9 per cent field goal shooting average.

The Diablos have four of their five starters scoring in double figures, being led by 6-foot-1 Mose Adolph, a junior, with a 25-point per game average.

Others in double figures for the season are 6-2 Rodney Murray, 17.5, 6-2 Maryland Scott, 15.3, and 6-3 Morris Thomas 12.0. The fifth leading scorer is 5-11 Tony Sanders, 8.0.

Recently the Southern California Basketball Writers, at their weekly meeting, named Adolph the Los Angeles area's University Division Player of the Week.

Ray Golson, the hot-shooting junior college transfer who has had two 30-point games so far this season, paces the Buffaloes with 92 points and a 23-point per game average. He also is the most accurate from the field, hitting on 47 per cent of his shots.

Steve Davidson, who transferred to West Texas with Golson, is averaging 13.7 points a game and sophomore Ralph Houston is third at 10.7 points.

Davidson, however, is the team's leading rebounder with 43, one more than Houston.
